Six Airlines End Wildcat Walkout

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (UPI)—Six airlines, including Eastern, agreed to resume operations by the settlement of the worst airlines strike in history, recalled thousands of laid-off employees sped toward the restoration of full service.

Almost all the 80,000 workers furloughed because of the six-day flight engineers' walkout were notified to report to work today.

WESTERN AIRLINES, the seventh in the dispute, refused to join an agreement to refrain from reprisals against strikers and call off lawsuits. There appeared little chance Western could restore service soon unless it reversed its position that it has fired its 130 strikers.

TOTAL COST of the strike to the airlines, passengers, resort areas and stranded workers was estimated at $70 million or

The three-man commission named by President Kennedy to seek a long-range solution to the dispute planned today to start out by riding in airplane cockpits to see for themselves what the flight engineers' duties entail.

The engineers began their walkout last Friday night against Pan American, ignoring a presidential fact-finding commission set up to delay the strike. The walkout turned wildcat and spread in protest of a Feb. 6 National Mediation Board ruling that pilots and engineers of United Air Lines should vote to form a single union.

AFFECTED by the strike were Pan American, Trans World Airlines, American Airlines, Eastern Airlines, National Airlines, Western Airlines and the cargo carrying Flying Tiger Line. Pan American, National and Western kept operating with sharply curtailed schedules. The others closed down.

Openhouses, Tours End BYU Engineering Week

VISITORS will be guided through the building by engineering students. The tours will give students the opportunity to view the operation of scientific equipment and have scientific phenomena explained to them.

The outstanding fifth-year engineering student will be named and awarded a plaque at Saturday evening's banquet for engineering students, wives and faculty members. The best display of the week also will be recognized.

DISPLAYS continue Friday in campus buildings. They were arranged by student engineers to promote interest in the week's activities.

Noted space travel and rocket authority, Dr. Werner Von Braun, will speak in the University of Utah Student Union Bldg. as the highlight to Engineering Week Friday night. His speech was arranged by the Utah Society of Professional Engineers.

A TELEVISION broadcast of Dr. Von Braun's lecture and movies will be televised by closed circuit into the Kingsbury Hall, and a limited number of interested students may attend.

Dr. Von Braun, a scientist of German origin, developed the German V-2 rockets used in World War II, after which he came to America. He is now the director of the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala.

Featured Artist Proves Good Will Ambassador

by Becki Fillmore Universe Campus Editor

"When we hear someone like you, we love Americans." This was a typical reaction of the Russian people to American pianist Byron Janis. Janis, who play in the lyceum series Thursday night, toured the Soviet Union last October and November for five weeks.

He says that a group of Russian people came on their own to his hotel room in Leningrad to tell him this. And this incident is similar to several others which occurred on Janis' tour of Russia.

For these reasons, the 32-year old pianist said that the cultural exchange of artists between Russia and the United States means further than just an exchange of talent between the two countries. "They cannot separate artist in me from the fact that I'm an American," he said.

Janis called the Russian people a "delightful" audience to play for because they are very emotional and demonstrative. "Also their warmth," he recalled, "I was impressed with their warmth."

He said his programming for the tour included some contemporary works, both American and Russian. Among them were an Aaron Copland sonata and Gershwin's piano concerto, which "they loved."

Janis said the Russian people seemed to him very much like the American people in spite of the "great difference" which has been created between them. He said they seemed happy and contented, that they had happy expressions on their faces.

The artist was a quiet, almost shy man who seemed to feel truly at home only in his world of music and slightly a stranger anywhere else.

Photo Chief Wins in Safety Contest

Helio Gonzales, Daily Universe photo coordinator, has won both first and second place photography awards in a national contest promoting traffic safety. The two awards total $150.

Gonzales' photographs, which were carried on the front pages of the Daily Universe on Nov. 21 and 22, were judged superior over entries from 89 other universities and colleges throughout the nation.

One photograph was of a girl in a rear-view mirror as seen through the shattered windshield of a wrecked car. It was entitled "I Didn't See That Other Car..."

The other photograph was of doctors leaning over a patient and was entitled "Who Will Carry On Thanksgiving?" By its side was another photograph of a family sitting down to Thanksgiving dinner.

In notifying Gonzales of the award, James S. Kemper of Kemper Insurance, whose Cumbermen's Mutual Casualty company sponsors the annual traffic safety contest, said the photographs were "outstanding."

"You have made a fine contribution to the worthy cause of safer driving and I hope your attitudes and talents will be applied continuously to the improvement of traffic safety," he wrote.

Gonzales is a sophomore civil engineering major from Chihuahua, Mexico. He worked as a photographer for local papers in Mexico before coming to BYU.

As Universe photo coordinator he heads a staff of six photographers and four darkroom technicians.

NAACP Says... Negroes Will Only Freed For Congo

NEW YORK, Feb. 22—The NAACP said today that it should protest the Congo's new constitution which led to the death of Patrice Lumumba, NAACP executive secretary, said this week.

But the demonstration, United Nations on Feb. 22, not "represent either the NAACP or the NAACP," Mr. Wilkins said.

The press "labeling of the NAACP as a source of disturbance as activity of Negroes" has created a picture of the NAACP as a source of disturbance as activity of Negroes, Mr. Wilkins said.

The truth, he asserted, is that many of our citizens, public officials have far more to appreciate the deep and feeling American Negroes toward the efforts of Africa to achieve freedom from colonialism.

"This emotion," Mr. Wilkins declared, "is heightened note the discriminations equalities they themselves have to suffer 88 years of Emancipation Proclamation."

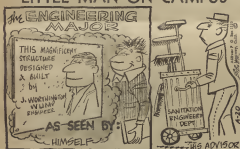

The result is that African Negroes tend to identify themselves with the African people as struggling against the holding of freedom and dignity by white people. "except for language, customs, and religion," Mr. Wilkins said, "they are not so different from the South Carolinians." The result is that African Negroes may be no more on many aspects of the situation than their white citizens, they are not so different from the South Carolinians.

Further, they do not want to do anything to facilitate the control of the Congo by any nation, or by any nation or faction acting in the name of a European power.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

On the Jazz Scene:
"Jazz Winds from a New Decoration."
That's the title of a new Columbia album featuring Hank Garland, guitar. This, jazz fans, is an album worthy of your consideration.

Good jazz guitarists are few and far between. Good enough, that is, to merit the solo spotlight on an entire package. Hank Garland not only does the guitar justice, he does it the hard way... via the Grand Old Opry. As a matter of fact, that's the reason for the album title. According to the liner notes: "There is scarcely a country record emanating from Nashville, Tennessee, in which he is not featured behind the troubadours of the Grand Ol' Opry."

Well now, it's quite a trip from Nashville to Birdland but Mr. Garland makes it a real smooth ride.

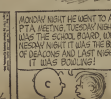

Actually, it shouldn't come as that much of a surprise. Both Tai Farrow and Mundell Lowe are graduates of the Grand Ol' Opry and it doesn't seem to have affected them adversely even a little bit. Still there must be a better, or at least, more recommended school for the guitarist who wants to "make it" in jazz.

Another happy surprise offered in this album is a young fellow by the name of Gary Burton who handles the vibes. He is just 17 years old and hails from Boston, (two handicaps he manages to overcome quite nicely) and should turn out to be the discovery of the year. Joe Morello and Joe Benjamin, drums and bass respectively, round out a very listenable jazz quartet. I give it my highest rating: four spunkies.

In last week's column we neglected to mention one of the new Capitol Starline Albums that arrived at the same time as those that were mentioned. This could be described as an intentional oversight since I find it just about as easy to avoid Louis Prima as Elvis Presley. Nevertheless, for the fans who go that route it's "The Hits of Louis and Keely".

GET ACQUAINTED WITH YOUR FUTURE

Graduating scientists and engineers should know far in advance where their greatest opportunities are for professional development, personal achievement, and job security.

It is important, too, that graduates choose the environment that contributes best to their career requirements... association with outstanding leaders... assignments to highly diversified research and development programs... access to modern facilities.

Naval weapons laboratories are well known for scientific achievements. In California, they provide the environment and the challenge to attract the young scientist or engineer to a more rewarding future.

The Coming Smart Look On Campus...

Color Coordinates Invade Spring Fashion Scene

by Diane Johnson
Universe Fashion Columnist

As far as style is concerned, one of the most practical, as well as one of the most popular items in a coed's closet is her coordinated set. Mixed and matched outfits came out about a year ago and have since gained momentum in the fashion world. Today, all of the nation's leading dress shops are advertising outfits which include three to six—even seven pieces: skirts, blouse, bermudas or tapers shown with coordinated jackets and vests to complete the set.

Officers Elected By Speleo Club

Thos Winkel was recently elected president of the BYU Speleo Club. Last semester president was Dick Link.

Other officers of the club include Will Ashby, vice president; Joan Wandlins and Kay Gardner as secretaries.

The purpose of the Speleo Club is to explore caves throughout Utah. Many new explorations are on the agenda for this semester.

The club meets every first and third Wednesday of each month in 239 Eyring Science Center. This Wednesday slides of some previous trips of the Speleo Club will be shown.

WHICH BRINGS me to my second point, the coordinated set is practical as well as fashionable. Miss Coed need only a four or five piece set to mix and improvise for a dozen different changes. And with a little planning, she can have an outfit for any hour of the day or night. This should be of particular interest to the girl who plans to travel this summer and has limited packing space.

A third advantage the coordinate offers is that now a girl can buy something that is "just perfect" for her in terms of lines, color and style. And by including several other pieces, she can carry the same note of personal perfection into many phases of her wardrobe.

THIS NEW look in women's clothes took the cue from men's suit designers and many of them are still complaining that now woman had invaded everything that man had deemed sacred, including the style of his favorite vest. From a preview of fall fashions, it seems that men will have to go on suffering. As near as I can predict, tailored suits (with vests) for women, will continue to be popular right on through the fall season.

MEANWHILE THESE NEW coordinated sets are out in a variety of spring colors and all but replaced the traditional colton prints. Blues, somewhat neglected last year, are strong this spring, while greens remain as popular as ever. "new" spring, dress makers jumped gun and too much of it came out in holiday fashions. It promises however, to be a popular spring color second only to tones in the pink family.

Mission Corps Increase

The end of the fall semester brought with it, in addition to the usual report cards, hundreds of mission calls to Brigham Young University students. The following are some of those that have been turned in to the Daily Universe Society Desk.

Harold Wood, a Farmington, N. M. freshman, will serve in Western Canada. He will enter the mission home March 6.

Two regulars on last fall's BYU football squad, team captain Dick Magoffin and tackle Wes Vorwaller, have accepted foreign mission calls.

Magoffin, center and three-year letterman from San Diego, Calif., has been called to the North British mission.

Vorwaller, another three-year letterman and native of Tooele, has been assigned to the South German mission in Europe.

Each of the former gridgers has one semester of school remaining for graduation.

'Hill' Insurmountable...

Cats Fall to 'Skins 95-80

by Danny Moore Universe Sports Editor

Utah University's insurmountable mountain of basketball perfection, Billy "the Hill" McGill, pumped in 33 points last night to lead the "Runnin' Redskins" to an easy 95-80 victory over the outmanned Brigham Young University Cougars.

McGILL, along with teammate Jim Rhead treated the lively capacity crowd in Rnair Nielson Fieldhouse to an awesome show of offensive power. Rhead contributed 29 points to the Ute cause, 20 of them coming in the first half which saw the Ute offensive move to a 32-38 halftime lead. Both McGill and Rhead snagged 18 rebounds to contribute to the injuns' 60-40 edge in that department.

The game was a one-sided affair most of the way with the Utes holding as much as a 19-point lead during the first half, and as much as a 14-point advantage throughout most of the second half. THE COUGARS held the lead only twice all night, 2-1 and 4-3 in the opening moments of the game, but Rhead and McGill started finding the range and the Utes had moved out to a 20-6 advantage with 14:35 left in the initial half.

McGill departed from the fray with four personals and 12 points with 5 minutes and 45 seconds remaining in the first half and Rhead picked up his fourth foul shortly after.

The Cougars behind the clutch shooting of sophomore guard Gary Batchelor, made a determined bid at a comeback early in the second half when they cut Utah's lead to seven at 65-58 with a little over eight minutes gone into the second half.

UTAH COACH Jack Gardner went to his bench for McGill and Rhead and together they once again propelled the Utes out of danger.

Displaying deadly accuracy (54%) McGill connected on long leaping jump shots from the top of the key and from sweeping hook shots from the side. Once underneath the basket he was unstoppable.

The Cougars were led by center Dave Eastis' 20 points. Batchelor rimmed 16 and guard Gary Earnest contributed 13.

Paposes Stop Frosh 16-62

by Gary Thurman Universe Sports Writer Kittens had their hopes of a state championship still led last night by losing to the Papaposes 76-62. The Freshmen started out strongly and for the first 10 minutes the game was quite close with the lead changing hands several times. At one point with 14 minutes of the first half gone, the Kittens held a lead 20-16. The next 4 minutes saw the Utes sink 14 points on BYU's 2. The Kittens closed his gap of 30-22 to 34-28 at half-time.

The first part of the second half was "Waterloo" for the Frosh. Alstrom fouled out and the Kittens were cold as ice.
Six minutes passed before the Kittens connected with a field goal, meanwhile the Papaposes jumped in 13 points. At one point midway in the second half the Utes' Frosh led by 17 points. The Kittens rallied the last part of the second half but they were just too far under by then. Three quick baskets by Blumenthal, Oborn, and Hurst brought the Cougar Frosh within 8 points of the Indians with four minutes remaining and for a minute it looked like the Kittens might pull it out. The Papaposes had other ideas though and settled down to controlling the ball the remaining minutes.

The final minutes saw the Papaposes go to the foul line repeatedly due to the zealous efforts of BYU to get the ball. In the last two minutes the Utes connected 7 charity tosses to 1 field goal for the Kittens and the game ended at 76-62.

Y Pistooleers To Organize As New Club

Men aren't alone in their interest to carry a pistol and practice the quick draw. There are some potential Annie Oakleys on the Brigham Young University campus.

At least, female interest in the campus pistol team pointed to this conclusion.

DEL LEACH, captain of the new team, said that many girls as well as fellows have requested to join the club.

"Actually," said Leach, "Girls, with the proper training, can become much better pistol shots than can men because they are naturally more steady."

THE CAMPUS pistoleers are members of the National Rifle Association and will work in conjunction with the campus rifle team headed by Gary Wilcox.

Standard course of fire, using a pistol, is done in the standing position. Because of indoor facilities, the group will use .22 calibre pistols. Firing will be in competition, 10 shots slow fire, 10 shots rapid fire, and 10 shots timed fire with 300 points possible.

LEACH is a member of the 96th Division of the U.S. Army Reserve pistol team and has participated in the 10th USAR Corps matches in Ft. Lewis, Wash., for the past three years.

Club dues are two dollars a semester and meetings are held every Monday in the ROTC rifle range. Those desiring more information may contact Del Leach, FR 3-1027.
